

Appointment of Chief Executive Officer – Tony Aloisio, Australian Flexible Pavement Association

Wednesday 14th May 2025

It is with great pleasure that I announce the appointment of Tony Aloisio as the Chief Executive Officer of the Australian Flexible Pavement Association (AfPA), effective 1 July 2025.

Following a careful and thorough recruitment process, and in recognition of Tony's performance in the role of Interim CEO, the Board is confident that Tony is the right person to lead AfPA into its next phase of growth and development.

Tony has demonstrated excellent leadership, strategic vision, and a deep understanding of the industry. As a former Chair of AfPA, he is widely respected among members and stakeholders and brings a wealth of experience to the role. He will continue to receive the full support of the AfPA Board. Under his leadership, we are confident that AfPA will further strengthen its role as the trusted voice of the flexible pavement industry, fostering collaboration, driving innovation, and delivering meaningful outcomes across the sector.

Together, with Tony's leadership, the dedication of our team, and your invaluable contributions, AfPA will continue to serve as the trusted voice for our industry, championing the principles of Advocacy, Health & Safety, Knowledge, Sustainability, Technology and Capability & Inclusion.

Should you have any questions or require further clarification, please do not hesitate to reach out to myself or any member of the Board. Your ongoing participation and support are deeply appreciated, and I extend my sincere gratitude for your continued partnership as we navigate this transition and collectively pursue our mission.

Rob McGuire
AfPA Board Chair
